Dear Parent/Guardian

Maiden Erlegh School Recognised as Being in Top 10 Nationally for Student Happiness

I am delighted to share some wonderful news with you – Maiden Erlegh School has been recognised as one of the top 10 secondary schools nationally in the Pupil Choice Award for 2023/24, based on pupil survey responses during the year to the question: "How happy are you to be studying at this school?" Our Heads of Year will be announcing the news to students in assembly.

We are delighted that our students feel such a strong sense of belonging and well-being. This recognition is a testament to the exceptional dedication of our staff, who work tirelessly to ensure that our students feel valued and supported and it reflects the positive and inclusive environment we have created.

"The secondary schools recognised with this award set the benchmark for fostering pupil happiness nationwide," according to Ernest Jenavs, CEO of awarding organisation Edurio, and Maiden Erlegh School has now been invited to collaborate on Edurio's upcoming practical guide, "Supporting Pupil Happiness and Belonging."

Jon Peck, CEO of Maiden Erlegh Trust, commented:

"This award is a reflection of the culture of care and aspiration that defines Maiden Erlegh School. Creating a school where students feel happy, respected, and empowered is fundamental to our Maiden Erlegh Trusts values, and we greatly value this recognition."

Andy Johnson, Director of Education Maiden Erlegh Trust, added:

"This achievement demonstrates the outstanding commitment of Maiden Erlegh School to student well-being. It is a celebration of the relationships, care, and dedication that define the school's ethos."

As Headteacher, I want to take this opportunity to thank you, our parents and guardians. Your ongoing support, partnership, and encouragement make a significant difference in our students' experiences. Together, we continue to build an environment where students can flourish academically, socially, and personally.

I look forward to continuing to provide the very best for your children and celebrating further successes together.

Yours sincerely
