

Accessible Readers.

Many of these titles are published by Barrington Stoke, the experts on engaging dyslexic readers.

Their books are often written by the best children's authors and use a dyslexia friendly font and paper colour.

The Vampire of Croglin (Reloaded)

By Terry Deary

Interest Age 11+ Reading Age 8+.

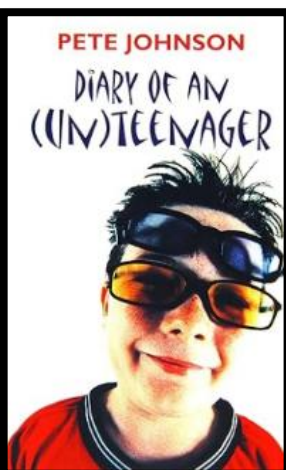

The villagers live in fear of noises in the night. The new tenants at the Grange have been attacked. What is the truth behind the legend of the vampire? Both comic and sinister.

The Ghost Box

By Catherine Fisher

Interest Age 11+ Reading Age 8+. A tale of suspense with a girl, her step-brother, a ghost and an old gnarled oak tree, with a surprising twist at the end.

A wonderfully suspenseful and page-turning mystery and thriller rolled into one involving a girl, her step-brother, a boy ghost and an old gnarled oak tree, with a clever and surprising twist at the end. Fear of a ghost and loathing for her step-brother, Sarah must make a decision that is life threatening, not just for her but perhaps for others too.

Diary of an (Un) Teenager

By Pete Johnson

Interest Age 11+ Reading Age 8+. Hilarious, award-winning bestseller with a sequel: Return of the (Un) Teenager.

Spencer is disgusted at the idea of being a teenager. He's not interested in girls, skateboards or huge trainers - so he decides he'll be an (un)teenager instead! A comical take on the highs and lows of being a teenager, from a hugely popular teen author. Particularly suitable for struggling, reluctant and dyslexic readers aged 12+

Seriously Silly Stories – series

By Laurence Anholt and Arthur Robins

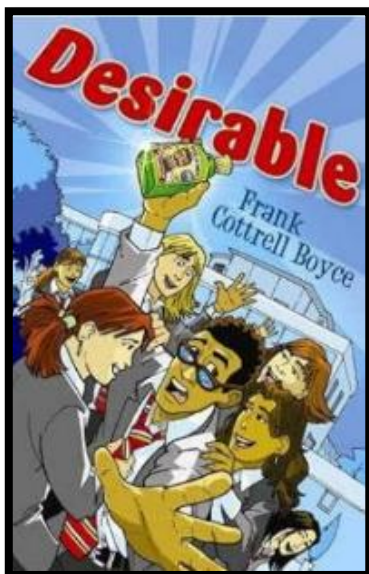

Twisted takes on favourite fairy tales. Aimed at primary school age but funny enough for year 7 or even 8 to enjoy. Including:

- Rumply Crumple Stinky Pin
- Eco-wolf and the Three Pigs
- Ghostshocks and the Three Scares

Desirable

By Frank Cottrell Boyce

When misfit George's grandfather gives him an old bottle of aftershave for his birthday, George finds his status at school suddenly altered. Laugh-out-loud comedy from a Carnegie Medalist writer.

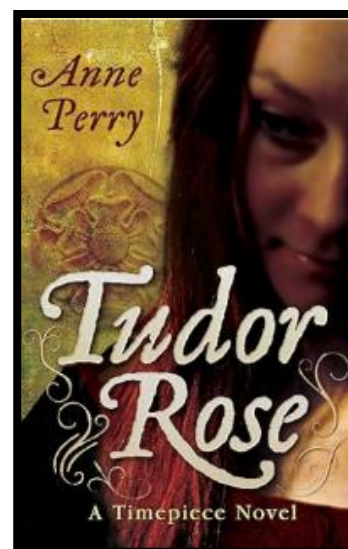

A hilarious comedy from award-winning Frank Cottrell Boyce. George is so unpopular that even his own grandad won't come to his birthday party. Instead, his grandad sends him a bottle of aftershave that expired years ago. But the aftershave seems to have developed extra properties since its sell-by date...Now George is irresistible to all the girls in school - and even the teachers can't get enough of him! Particularly suitable for struggling, reluctant and dyslexic readers aged 8+

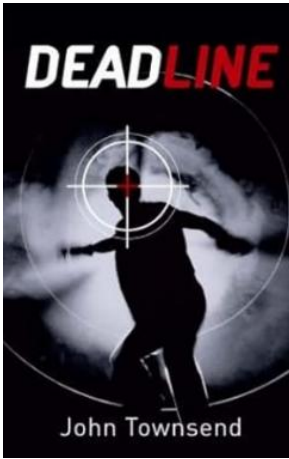

Timepiece series

By Anne Perry

Reading age 8+. Interest age: 11+. From Barrington Stoke comes this series aimed particularly at girls. Rosie is the feisty protagonist who travels back in time. The first three books are:

- Tudor Rose
 - Rosie hates her life, but everything changes when she is given a mysterious old watch and wakes up at Elizabeth I's court with the Spanish Armada approaching. When Rosie uncovers a spy she knows she must act and warn the Queen. Can she make it to the port before it is too late? Thrilling historical adventure from a master of the genre.
- Rose of No Man's Land
- Blood Red Rose

Deadline

By John Townsend

Barney uncovers a terrorist plot, but nobody will believe him. Can he stop the killers in time? A former teacher, John Townsend has written several very popular titles for Barrington Stoke.

Ninja: First Mission (Ninja Trilogy)

By Chris Bradford

Taka's desperate to prove that he has what it takes to become a ninja. He has failed the Grandmaster's test twice already. But when the clan's scrolls are stolen by an enemy samurai he has a chance to prove himself. Chris Bradford is the author of the popular Young Samuri series, devoured by many a KS2 pupil and now has books for older teens – the Bodyguard series - so this trilogy might also help less able readers feel part of the crowd.

